Family Counselling

Supporting your family with the right care

Life's challenges don't stop at the workplace — and neither does our support. Our confidential Family Counselling service is available to your immediate family, offering guidance and strategies to help navigate personal and family life with confidence and care.

Converge can help you with:

- Addressing and resolving conflicts at home
- Balancing the demands of work and family life
- Parenting support for children, teens, and young adults
- Managing stress and emotional wellbeing together
- Building a healthier, more connected home environment
